BALDWIN RESPECTS A CAPTAIN

The following item from yesterday's Lexington Leader is of interest here, Captain Respass being an old Maysville boy and well known here:

A telegram received this morning by A. C. Respass, from his son, Baldwin Respass, who has been at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indiana, attending the second officers' training camp, said: "Commissioned captain O. R. C."

Captain Respass is one of the best known young men in Central Kentucky, a golfer of more than local reputation and very popular. He gave up a profitable business here when the second training camp was opened and has been at Fort Harrison since. He is expected to be home on a short furlough soon.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE

All persons having claims against the estate of John A. Crosby, deceased, are notified to present same to me properly proven, and all persons indebted to said estate will please call and settle.

BLACKBURN ILL

Washington, November 23—Former United States Senator Joseph S. C. Blackburn, of Kentucky, is seriously ill at his home here.

Friends who have called at his home are not optimistic about his recovery.

Rev. E. L. Wilson will preach at the Washington Presbyterian Church Sunday morning at 10:30. Sunday School at 9:30. There will be no evening service.

Miss Lula Viceroy is quite ill at her home in the West End.

BIG TIME TONIGHT

Corn and Tobacco Fair to Close With Big Masque Carnival—Everybody Expected To Get In the Swing and Have a Good Time—Nothing Barred But Rowdiness.

"Looks like to me like a big night tonight."

Tonight is carnival night at the big corn and tobacco fair, and every one is expected to have a good time, and if you fail you will have no one to blame but yourself, as no one can help having a glorious time if they enter into the spirit of the occasion.

The management has said "go to it," nothing barred but rowdiness. They have even gone so far as to permit dancing all over the warehouse all the evening; so dance, everybody, anybody, everywhere, anywhere, any time the band plays.

The management asks that every person, big little, old or young, come masked and costumed; but if you are unable to arrange a costume, mask any way, even if you only wear a false face.

As soon as the king's proclamation is read the band will strike up a lively one-step, and we hope to see 1,000 couples dancing at the first note.

This is the first year to have a carnival and those in charge are very anxious to succeed along the lines planned this year, and then we can make it much better and more elaborate next year, so co-operate as much as possible and do not fail to mask and have your friends mask.

THREE SUITS FILED

In the Mason Circuit Court Yesterday—Was Last Day For Filing Suits For December Term of Court.

Yesterday was the last day for filing suits for the December term of the Mason Circuit Court. The following suits were filed:

S. N. Bradford filed suit against Henry Farrow and Mrs. Elizabeth Farrow for damages in the sum of $2,000 for injuries he received some time ago when riding in a motorcycle near the intersection of Bridge and East Second streets, at which time it is alleged the defendant, Henry Farrow, carelessly and negligently drove an automobile into, against and upon the plaintiff and that the plaintiff was thereby greatly injured and bruised about the body and limbs and his right leg broken. He further states that the automobile was owned by the defendant, Mrs. Elizabeth Farrow, and was being operated at the time by the defendant, Henry Farrow, agent and servant of Mrs. Elizabeth Farrow. In another suit filed by Frank Hauke against the same defendant he asks for $115 for damage done to his motorcycle in said accident.

Charles P. Trumbo, who secured judgment against the Watson Construction Company in 1915 for the loss of one of his eyes in an accident while working for said company, filed suit yesterday for the collection of his judgment. The plaintiff states that an execution was issued upon his securing judgment and was returned into court marked, "No funds found." He states that the construction company is now doing work for the C. & O. Railway Company near Springdale and that the C. & O. has held back $5,000 to insure the proper construction of said work. He asks for an attachment against his fund to pay his previous judgment and for interest from September 2, 1915, and costs.

MAYSVILLE BOYS HONORED

Eugene J. McNamara Receives Commission as First Lieutenant at Fort Benjamin Harrison—Will Arrive Home Thursday For Sixteen-Day Furlough.

Mr. Charles F. McNamara received a telegram from his son, Eugene J. McNamara, who has been stationed at Fort Benjamin Harrison for several months, saying that he had received a commission as First Lieutenant.

Lieutenant McNamara will arrive home next Thursday for a sixteen-day furlough, after which he expects to be stationed at Camp Lee, Prestonburg, Va.

Lieutenant McNamara is one of Maysville's finest young men and is well liked by all who know him. He was formerly reporter on the Ledger staff and because of his cheerful nature and "push" showed the making of a good newspaper man. That he will succeed in the army work there is no doubt, and should the war continue for any length of time, we predict that he will advance rapidly.

He deserves especial praise because of the fact that he is the youngest fellow from Mason county to receive a commission. He is barely past twenty-one, and not being of age at the time of the first registration he felt the call for duty and responded nobly. He is a rugged fellow, well built, of a commanding attitude and a natural-born leader.

Maysville is proud to claim him as her son and will welcome him back home next week with outstretched arms.

Word was also received here that Mr. Beecher Holiday, of this city, received a commission as First Lieutenant. Mr. Holiday is well qualified as he had military training before entering Fort Benjamin Harrison, having seen service in the Spanish American War.

W. C. T. U. MEETING

The monthly meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the room over Chamber of Commerce. Every member and all who are interested are urged to be present as Miss Alice Lloyd will give us a report from the Purity Conference, which she recently attended at Louisville.

MRS. J. L. McDOWELL, Pres.

Miss Georgia McNutt, of Dover, was a visitor in the city yesterday and attended the Corn and Tobacco Fair.

DEATH OF J. BARKER JONES

Mr. J. Barker Jones, aged 62 years, one of the county's most substantial farmers, passed away at the home of his cousin, Mrs. Alice Best, on East Second street, this morning at 3 o'clock, having been ill for about a week with pneumonia.

Mr. Jones was well liked by all who knew him and he numbered his friends by the score. He was very quiet and unassuming, but was quite prominent in the Washington neighborhood, where he was born and reared.

He is survived by a brother, Mr. George Jones of Paris, Ky.

The funeral will be held from the residence of Mrs. Alice Best Monday afternoon at 1:15 o'clock.

LARGE CROWD HEARS GOVERNOR STANLEY

A large crowd was in attendance at the Liberty Warehouse yesterday to hear the address of Governor Stanley. His talk was of a patriotic nature and was addressed mainly to the farmers urging them to do their part in helping to win the war.

J. T. Linville, Meredith Linville, Claude Linville and wife of Ewing, Ky., are visiting Everett Linville and family of Walnut street.

Dr. Bradford of Augusta, will fill the pulpit at the Third Street M. E. Church Sunday in the absence of the pastor, Rev. S. K. Hunt.

SOAP

Ladies' best facial soap, Medicated soap for pimple and boils, Sulphur soap for blackheads, Super Tar soap for head shampoo, Pure and Mild soap for babies, Pure Glycerine and Peroxide bath Tablets, Hand soap that won't chaps, best grade Dog and Cat soap.

FORTY-THIRD ANNIVERSARY

The Mt. Olive Tribune-Democrat, one of the best little weeklies in this section of the state, is this week celebrating its forty-third anniversary. John W. Zoller is the editor and to him we offer our congratulations.

There will be a rally at the Washington High School Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Good music and speaking. All women are urged to attend.

K. OF C. FUND CLOSES

The following additional contributions to the Knights of Columbus war fund to be used for the boys at the training camps were made yesterday: Judge C. D. Newell$10.00 Miss Margaret Brown 2.00 Mrs. A. E. Series 1.00 These contributions closed this fund, the total amount subscribed being $1,267.55.

WAR TIME SUPPLIES

The ladies of the Central Presbyterian Church will have a sale of knitting bags, Red Cross aprons, soldier's kits, children's dresses and other practical articles on Wednesday, November 28, and Friday, November 30, at Hendrickson & Co.'s paint store. In co-operation with the food conservation campaign, there will be no sale of eatables.

SPENDING OUR BILLIONS

Any private business that handled its expenditures the way the United States government does would probably go bankrupt. So would any individual. In private life we generally regulate our outgo according to our income, in agreement with a general, continuous, coherent plan. It is only in public life that we spend money at haphazard, for any purpose that seems good at the moment, without considering where the funds are to come from or what further outlay will be entailed.

President after president has sought to establish a budget plan, by which the estimates of administrative departments would be systematized and harmonized, and congress would know exactly what was expected of it. But always the reform has been balked, inertia and red tape and partisan politics have perpetuated the old, chaotic procedure by which every head of a department asks, year in and year out, for a great deal more money than he needs or expects, and every senator and representative grabs what he can for his state or district, and legitimate undertakings are turned down or starved while millions go for "pork."

At a time when we are engaged in the most expensive venture of our history, this foolishness ought to stop. The grab-bag and guess-work policy ceases to be tolerable when expenditures are reckoned in tens of billions of dollars. In the last session, congress seldom knew, within several billions, how much money it would be expected to vote.

There was some reason for uncertainty, in the hurry of vast war preparations, with so many unfamiliar factors entering into the computation. But the shaping and passage of those appropriation bills would have been immensely easier if a suitable budget system had been already established. And surely there will be no excuse for any such confusion hereafter.

The administration is said to be trying now, with the help of some of our big financiers, to work out a better method of handling government appropriations for the remainder of the war. The reform is so desirable that any reasonable opposition to it is inconceivable.

READING THE BIBLE

In New York, as in most American cities, the Bible has long been barred from the public schools because of sectarian opposition. Recently there was a big mass meeting held in Carnegie Hall at which Protestants, Catholics and Jews joined in an appeal to have religious instruction re-introduced.

The men and women interested in this matter insist that there ought to be some such element in public education, because otherwise thousands of boys and girls grow up without any moral or religious training whatever. There is little Bible-reading in the average home nowadays, and the Sunday School doesn't occupy the place it used to. It is argued that if education means the building of character as well as the instruction of the mind, there must be some sort of religious teaching. And many educators insist that it can be accomplished without any undue sectarian influence, or any offense to any denomination.

It is held to be sufficient, for school purposes, to deal with principles that are common to all great religions. And certainly the Old Testament, which is revered by Jew, Protestant, Catholic and Mohammedan, affords plenty of opportunity for ennobling instruction.

From another viewpoint, too, it is a pity that Bible-reading has so largely vanished from the schools. No one can know English literature, or indeed any modern European literature, without knowing the fundamentals of Biblical lore. So ignorant are many present-day high-school and college students of this great storehouse of poetry, history, romance and prophecy that allusions to Biblical characters or incidents which were as familiar as every-day life to their parents or grandparents mean nothing at all to them.

If the Bible can't be read in the common schools, owing to sectarian objections, why not read it as literature in the high school and college? It is at least as deserving of study as the poetic fables of Greek and Roman gods and demigods over which students spend so much time.

COAL AND THE KAISER

The government has gained another able ally in the person of "Mother" Jones, who has probably more influence with miners than any other American. "Mother", despite her record as an inveterate enemy of everything tending to limit the absolute freedom of labor, agrees with Fuel Administrator Garfield's plan for the settlement of coal-mine disputes, and is trying to line up "her boys" to increase the output.

"It is our duty to stand by the president of the nation in this crisis," she says. "Help the government now to lick the Kaiser, and then we'll lick hell out of the operators."

Rather forcible language, but very much to the point! The operators may deserve a licking, but they don't deserve it any more than the Kaiser does. Their punishment can wait, if necessary. The Kaiser's can't.

And maybe if the miners jump in on the Kaiser job, they'll find, before they get very far, that they won't have to bother about the operators. The government and the public can take care of them, if the miners do their part.

WOMEN WILL REGISTER

On Friday, November 30, To Help Uncle Sam Win the War.

The registration of women November 30 is for the purpose of furnishing information to the government. The government wishes to take account of stock. It must know how we stand, so it may know how it stands.

It should be clearly understood that there is no disposition on the part of the government to take women from their homes and their present occupation.

His applies especially to women on the farms, or those engaged in any productive work.

The farms and their output are the backbone of the nation, and a tremendous factor in the winning of the war. Continue your present work as exactly as possible. If you wish to improve the quality of your work the government will help you.

Read the list carefully. Should you desire a salaries position, either in government service or not, this card will furnish means to obtain it for you.

If you sign for something which subsequent conditions make it impossible to fulfill, you are at liberty to withdraw. Try to be as accurate as possible. Germany had a complete catalogue of her women at the beginning of the war, and her long resistance is partly attributed to this.

Following are the lines of training and experience which women are expected to check as being able to take up when they register:

- I. Agricultural
 1. Dairying.
 2. Farming.
 3. Fruit raising.
 4. Gardening.
 5. Poultry raising.
 6. Stock raising.
- II. Clerical
 10. Accountant.
 11. Bookkeeper.
 12. Cashier.
 13. Clerical work (gen.).
 14. Filing.

KEPT HER AWAKE

The Terrible Pains in Back and Sides. Cardui Gave Relief.

Marksville, La.—Mrs. Alice Johnson, of this place, writes: "For one year I suffered with an awful misery in my back and sides. My left side was hurting me all the time. The misery was something awful."

I could not do anything, not even sleep at night. It kept me awake most of the night. I took different medicines, but nothing did me any good or relieved me until I took Cardui.

I was not able to do any of my work for one year and I got worse all the time, was confined to my bed and on, I got so bad with my back that when I stooped down I was not able to straighten up again. I decided I would try Cardui. By time I had taken the entire bottle I was feeling pretty good and could straighten up and my pains were nearly all gone.

I shall always praise Cardui. I continued taking it until I was strong and well. If you suffer from pain due to female complaint, Cardui may be just what you need. The Cardui of women who have suffered in this way have found Cardui for their present good health. Give it a trial.

GOOD BACKS FOR BAD

Mayville Residents Are Learning How to Exchange the Old Back For a Stronger One.

Does your back ache, feel weak and painful? Do you suffer headaches, languor and depression? The kidneys may be calling for help.

Weak kidneys cannot do their work. Give them the help they need. To cure a kidney backache you must cure the kidneys.

Use a tested and proven kidney remedy. Doan's Kidney Pills have stood the test.

Convincing proof of merit in Mayville endorsement: Mrs. M. Holliday, 221 W. Second St., Mayville, says: "At times, my back has ached across my kidneys. My kidneys have been irregular in action and I have had dizzy spells and headaches. I have always used Doan's Kidney Pills, getting them at Wood & Son's Drug Store, and they have never failed to relieve these complaints."

Mrs. Holliday is only one of many Mayville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS, the same that Mrs. Holliday had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 60c all stores. Through the Hoosier You Get the Kitchen "Short-Cuts" and Ideas of Kitchen Scientists

These Kitchen Science experts have spent their lives in the study of kitchen economies. How to lighten your kitchen labors and put new pleasure in cooking and baking has been their aim.

Through the Hoosier they transmit many valuable discoveries to you. Some of them are built right into the Hoosier. Others come to you in the form of practical suggestions.

Not only is the Hoosier a super-cabinet in convenient arrangement, but its lifetime construction makes it rank above all others. For instance, there is the Sanitary Porcelain top which is as easy to keep clean as a china plate.
